

‘I Will Show You Things to Come’

If you will begin to practice My presence, you will develop an ear to My voice and we can communicate with one another. And I can bring peace and joy into your lifestyle and into your ever day living that is beyond anything you have any idea right now that has been available to you. And I am more than willing, saith the Lord. I am looking for someone who has ears to hear. If you will commit this inner ear, if you will commit to hear My voice within you, I will train you in it. I will walk you through, and I will show you things to come. This is the time when you need to know My voice. This generation will know and will follow My voice beyond any before it, and it will come to a place where the miraculous is common place in your presence, saith the Lord. Hallelujah, Glory to God. Hallelujah.

Prophecy delivered by Kenneth Copeland
August 26, 2005
Great Lakes Prosperity Overflow Convention